WHITAKER WRIGHT

Man Who Controlled Many of the World's Markets, Sentenced to Penal Servitude.

TOOK POISION IN COURT AND DIED.

Mr. Wright's Career Was Well Known on Three Continents for HIs Stupendous Financiai Operations.

All London is Thrilled With the News -No Such Human Tragedy Has Been Enacted in England For Many a Year.

London, Jan. 27.—At 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon Whitaker Wright was sentenced to seven years penal servitude. At 4 o'clock he lay dead on the floor of a small room in the law courts. Whether he took his own life by poison or whether death in its natural course robbed the law of its fulfillment will not be known until a post-mortem examination is held; the indications, however, point to poisoning.

The eareor of this man, who was known on three continents for his stupendous financial operations, closed in a startling tragedy. Even in his life, which with his rise from poverty to enormous wealth was full of dramatic incidents, there was nothing that could compare with the manner of his death. All London is thrilled with the news of it. No such human tragedy has been enacted in England for many a

Until nearly 8 o'clock Tuesday night the hody of the man who formerly controlled many of tho world's markets and who had heen courted hy royalty, remained upon the floor of the room where he fell.

The home office finally gave permission for its removal and the hody was given to the jurisdiction of the coroner. It now lies at Westminster mortuary, where almost all the corpses taken from the Thames are laid out. The inquest prohably will be held on Thursday.

Mrs. Wright An American.

Mrs. Wright, the dead man's wife, is an American. She now lies ill at the magnificent country home, which Wright had in Surrey. Dispatches from there say with a certain ingenious pathos: "The news of Whitaker Wright's death has eaused much sorrow. He was well known here for his acts of generosity and it was generally believed that he would be acquitted and return home again."

Mr. Wright was the brains and head of the London & Globe corporation and numerous other financial schemes. Ho was arrested in New York somo months ago and taken hack to London for trial for alieged crooked transac-

Tho feeling that Justice Bigham's conduct of the case was not very judicial appears to grow in legal circles of London, and the sentence imposed upon Wright would in itself have furnished England with an unexpected sensation.

Until counsel commenced pleading the actual trial of Whitaker Wright scarcely aroused that keen public interest which was exhibited when Wright was in the United States or when parliament decided he did not come within the pale of law breakers.

When Messrs. Isaacks and Walton started to make their appeal to the jury the people awoke up to the gravity of the issues concerned. Even tho government was involved, for it had taken the stand that Wright could not he prosecuted. Furthermore, it was an open secret that many great, and oven royal names, were indirectly involved in the proceedings. Friends of Wright had said that if drawn into a corner he would tell who had profited hy his transactions. Suspense roigned in many quarters while counsel for the defense made their appeal, but when the appeal was finished, those involved breathed easier and public curiosity remained unsatisfied.

When sentence was pronounced tho crowd in the court gasped in surprise. Wright was almost the only person present who appeared to be unmoved. Then turning to the reporters in the room rather than to his judge, he cried out in a firm voice:

"All that I can say it, that I am as innocent of any intention to deceive as any one in this room."

Suddenly Wright foll hackward as if he had fainted. The officer, who was waiting to take him to Frixton prison. ran to Kings college hospital, which is nearby, for a doctor. In the meanwhile the unconscious man was propped up on two chairs. The doctor came quickly. His first thought was that Wright had failen in an ordinary apopleptic fit, hut it was noticed that his heart hegan gradually to give out and hefore another doctor could arrive Whitaker Wright, within one hour of the time he had been sentenced, was

The convention will also receive the report of a committee appointed to draft a memorial on the death of the 200 miners in the Hartwick mine explosion at Cheswick, Pa.

The joint wage conferences generally last about one week. It is thought that it will take that iong this year to reach an agreement over the demands for the run of mine basis and the differential. The demands are always made for the entire state of Indiana. aii the Western Pennsylvania district and for the Hocking valley in Oitio and the Danville district in Hiinois as the basis for those two states. The operators will make the assertion that while the miners are not asking for an increase in the mining scale now in effect the run of mine basis and tho differential of seven cents flat would mean a heavy increase.

The present mining contract covering all operations in these four districts will explre April 1.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

ORRINE,"

A SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS SPECIFIC

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eata away the stomach lining and stupelies the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and ruining the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes.

"ORRINE" permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. No sanitarium treatment necessary; "ORRINE" can be taken at your own home without publicity. Can be given secretly if desired.

· CURE GUARANTEED OR MONEY REFUNDED.

"'ORRINE' cured my husband, who was a steady drunkard for many years. He now has no desire for stimulants, his health is good and he is fully restored to manhood. He used only five boxes of 'ORRINE.'"
